

Hosted by:  WuLug;
(Student Organization)

Free

Linux Basics Workshop

Topics covered:

- The Linux command line
- Common Linux tools
- Linux troubleshooting
- The Linux help system
- And more

Linux skills are useful for:

- Coding
- Cybersecurity
- Fixing computers
- Adding to your resume
- Personal projects
- Class projects
- Many Engineering+ projects
- Anywhere computers are used, and more

Fridays at 6pm
Starting Oct 28th
Beggs Hall, room 231
(Engineering Building)

Email wulug@wichita.edu with questions.

What is Linux?

Linux is a computer operating system used mostly for servers. Linux is associated with many tools commonly used in IT, software development, cybersecurity, and related fields.

Tux, The Linux Mascot

Join WuLug's chatroom on:

 Discord

or

 ZULIP

Sponsored by:

 WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY
LINUX USERS GROUP